Chapter I The forbidden legacy ov a fallen race (instrumental)

Chapter II Invocation ov the watch gods

O Mighty Watcher!
Thou art all and all art in Thee
free me from morals
intoxicate with Thy self love
O Mighty Sentinel!
Thou art the conscious one break the monotony ov existence that I may illuminate!

uncrowned in Tarterean Sulphur elder than the Memphian kings Thy reign so timeless and infinite ever silent watchers, whom mankind yet aches to embrace grand me Thy Promethean rays blacker than light... conquering lion headed god by the name ov Legion dost Thou arrive lead: Nergal

Thou hast seen the prophets in the desert Thou hast bled for the fallen idols from beyond prevailing strength hath made Thee greater than the god... from amongst the million dead angels army Azazel, begotten not ov human race honour the divine vision ov victorious sun open wide your glimmering eyes bathe in divinity ov loneliness empowered in self creation shine inward!
Sh e myaza! the profoundest one spread Thy wings
the desolate one

Thy disease untamed within the sinister self...

O Mighty Watcher!
Thou art all and all art in Thee
free me from morals
intoxicate with Thy self love
O Mighty Sentinel!
that I may illuminate!

lead: Seth

Chapter III The splendorous return background lead: Nergal beyond all cowardness! hast Thou no fear?

spit out the blasphemy!
strive unto sin...

seduce Thyself
o mighty seer!
the ancient voyager
blind me with light the sleepless ones

in aimless wandering Thou must first fall to reign in blasphemy...
