Please come back, I miss you, baby
C?mon, each time, ayeah
C?mon, each time, is the track blowin? my mind, ayeah

Have you heard of a sayin?
For those who are playin?
You don?t know what you?ve got ?till it?s gone
Well, there was my calling
I knew I was falling
Into something that would be so wrong
But I caught hold of myself
And change for the better
I can?t get you out of my mind
?Cos something inside
Made me realize you were fine

Each time when we?re alone
I guess I didn?t know
How far we were appart
Should?ve spoken to my heart
I guess I didn?t know
That each time you?d go away I?d cry
I can?t take all these good-byes

I know from this feelin?
Deep inside there?s a heelin?
I know that I?m in controll
Every day I am yearnin?
This love I feel burnin?
Burnin? right through my soul
So let?s make the start
Of somethin? that cannot be broken
The mould is so strong
Treat this love as a child
That grows into somethin? worthwhile, ohh

Deep, love so deep
Deep, love so deep, yeah
I can?t take all these good-byes
Faithfully, I will be
You will see, please believe me

I can't take all these good-byes

All the time we were alone
Guess I should've really known
Baby, you have always been mine
