(verse 1)

I never once said F grime, the clock kept ticking i just moved with the times.
im smarter thats why i do better, so dont act clever,
the insound changed i never.
i mc on anything i want,
i spit on something wack, i make it something hot.
i got everything these mcs slightly want, so not one of you noughts could ever make me cross. my mouth wasnt born with a silver spoon in not everybody made it in the hood i grew in im still so young but ive achieved so much it probably hurts alot of grown men see me moving as with all the little boys, well there just little boys i got a massive buzz, your making little noise. i love all my fans especially the girls and to everyone who loves me, i love me aswell.

(chorus)

THIS BEAT IS FOUL (foul) deserves two yellow cards (cards) send it off im going hard (hard) with each and every bar (bar)(x2) p.s im a star.

(verse 2)

im the shampoo above ya yea head and shoulder im tryna be the coolest and tryna be the rollest lying for the cameras, before I even noticed internet Gs, bought this im super dooper cool I am never on a hype im super dooper fly, all they know is nike I come through in a turtle neck, plain but nice peep down the side, you see a tiny red strip all i really know is how to be myself i never tried to change my image just to sell i wanted to be famous i wanted to have trainers used to save up for a pair now i buy the whole shelf a lot of things have changed since back in the day the best child line i got now is my face one man soldier in my own now beating me is impossible but joining me's the same

(Chorus)

check..check it..listen... i am not and postman prick i don't need to know what your postcode is and don't say im on your team nigga, i ain't tryna know what your team is see the grease tour, i ain't tryna listen munk steppin up they wanna diss him but you can't ask the last man who violated what has car coincidently his missing im just sayin i am not playing, i mean we ain't playin you are just are's as in are not's you are not G's you are not flees and certainly are not me so don't diss me if you can't make a better song and if it ain't CM you got the letters wrong cash more ovation we going hard fuck the alphabet minus AR

(chorus)

nigga fuck you i'm a star!
