So this is how it ends
This is where it all goes down
This is what "I don't love you" feels like

It ain't the middle of the night
And it ain't even raining outside
It ain't exactly what I had in mind
For goodbye

At a red light in the sunshine
On a Sunday
Nothin' to say
Don't even try

Some are comin' home
Some are leavin' town
While my world's crashin' down
On a Sunday
In the sunshine
At a red light

I thought she was gunna say
Somethin' about that couple kissin'
Crossin' the street
Or somethin' about this beautiful day

But she just looked me in the eye
Said it's over
Didn't try to lie
Or pick a fight
I might have seen it comin' thata way

But at a red light in the sunshine
On a Sunday
Nothin' to say
Don't even try

Some are comin home
Some are leavin town
While my world's crashin down
On a Sunday in the sunshine

At a red light

There's a momma calmin' down a little baby
In the backseat in front of me
There's an old man dressed in his Sunday vest
Just waitin' on green
But I can't see, gettin' past

This red light in the sunshine
On a Sunday
Nothin' to say
Don't even try

Some are comin home
Some are leavin town
While my world's crashin down
On a Sunday in the sunshine
(At a red light)

At a red light in the sunshine
On a Sunday
Don't even try

Some are comin home
Some are leavin town
While my world's crashin down

At a red light (X4)
