"Terminate By Battery"

Embrace the wickedness, seek out my niche,
Carried on from decades of confused chaotic bliss Belittle what you cannot be, I intend to hammer you, Study what's inside, slenderize its worth

Terminate by battery

Terminate by battery, keep the filth at bay, Inject them with a poisoned fist, parry and crush their outlook
Inside my tear of wisdom, ignorance stays alive, Pinch and squeeze till death, rust becomes you viewpoint
Terminate by battery

Suffocate on soaking cloth, that which wraps your being,
Proposition of denial, insular in how you think

Suffocate on soaking cloth, that which wraps your
being,
Proposition of denial, insular in how you think
So wallow in your rust and filth, repress your sickened glance,
You will fade, I've seen it, buried by the truth

Terminate by battery
