So I Ran...
To find the answers to your questions
But I turned
And ran in the other direction
So you said
Everything you thought you knew
I'm sorry girl
But I have news for you.

I'm just the boy to make a point to
Make an example out of you
I'm just the one to say we're done to
Get myself away from you...

I'm here to
Tell you you're running without direction
So you said
Everything you thought you knew
You're nothing
But a cry for attention
I'm sorry girl
You never meant much to me

I'm just the boy to make a point to
Make an example out of you
I'm just the one to say we're done to
Get myself away from you...

So I Ran.
