I'm goin' away to leave you, I'm gonna to leave you in disgrace

Nothin' in my favor, got the wind in my face

I'm goin' home, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Over the hill, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Can't get enough of sweet cocaine, get enough of Mary Jane

Goin' back to where I come from, I'm gonna roll it back home again

Over the hill, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Over the hill, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

I've been worried about my babies, I've been worried about my wife

Just one place for a man to be when he's worried about his life

I'm goin' home, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Well, over the hill, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Well, I'm goin' away to leave you, gonna leave you in

Got nothin' in my favor, got the rain in my face

I'm goin' home, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Well, over the hill, hey, hey, hey, over the hill

Well, over the hill, hey, hey, over the hill
