everybody knows i aint never coming down tonight ohh baby

arguing with my lady friend say she don't want this thing to end i saw her look to may commence i buy you that Mercedes Benz she say what the hell do you think this is you can't buy my heart with stupid gifts i say girl what if i can get the rims she say you can get the rims love is cheap worth nothing i see we don't need it and it'll kill you slow if you believe it stone time chilling like a villain fire place heated speeding off in my ve-hic hope she don't care just cheating i don't know yeah really just don't know she know who i was would she ever let it go she know who i was would it make our season change chorus

perception rearrange we just keep playing this game keep pretending that we are single just to mingle talking to the other girl they cant talk to me tho cause i can't hear them with my head in the clouds everybody know i am never coming down tonight oh yeah tonight oh yeah i am not tripping on nothing you got this guy loving everybody know i am never coming down tonight

she must be out of her mind she tell her girlfriends oh he is mine they reply word he is fine and they click over i am on the other line these girls can be such a trick she is my girlfriends o i never call her bitch show her off to my friends and say this my chick man she's loving when i do that shit upside down in the hotel i am going in she wishes me well i push her off the walls that's how i propel i am bringing it just hope don't cause her stomach to swell baby one day but not now i promise her i got her she like baby how i tell her hold on let me do my thing

(chorus)
