You creep through the back door
Around 4 A.M. and straight to the shower, you go
Whats up, washing hair down of unfamiliar scents
And I bet you believe, I don't know
I tell you that you smell so sweet
And then you climb on top of me
You thinking to yourself that you did it all so well Kinda feels like deja vu, no one deserves me more, than you
Then I turn to the and laugh (haha) cuz the jokes on you
Cuz the jokes on you (haha) the jokes on you
Cuz while you were washing your hair, she was here
But the jokes on you (haha) the jokes on you
When it's all said and done your not the only one
