I'm tired of secret keeping, livin' in the dark I'm ready to say the words You were speaking back at the start
Come and flood the corners of my heart

CHORUS

I say let there be light, I need mercy tonight
Wanna feel it like the sun is rising
Revealing what the shadow's hiding
I say let there be light, I need Your mercy to shine
Start living what I've been believing
What I got I want the whole world seein'
Let there be light

I'm feeling something happening, I'm finding hope again
It feels like the walls are finally cracking and Your love is pouring in

I'm seeing this is good just like You did

CHORUS

I was scared of what the shame would do
If I started coming clean to You
But suddenly it's darkness that's afraid

I say let there be light, I need Your mercy tonight
Wanna feel it like the sun is rising
Revealing what the shadow's hiding
I say let there be light, I need Your mercy to shine
Start living what I've been believing
What I got I want the whole world seein'
I'm tired of secret keeping
So let there be light, let there be light
