"Shines Through"

You are so hard on yourself, baby you.
You are so hard on yourself, baby you.
Ignore the lies that are inside.
I'll replace the picture that's not right.

You are so hard on yourself, baby you.
You are so hard on yourself, baby you.
When you feel the pains that are in this life.
I'll be your encouragement, I'll be by your side.

You don't realize your value
Your worth more than these diamonds
You don't see as I do
Your beauty it shines through.

The light shines through
The light shines through
Darkness leaves, what's left is you.
The light shines through.
It shines through.
