[Chorus:]

I wanna get down, down, down, down

Down, down, down

Get down

We can get down

[Kanye West]

Uh... Mr. West is in the building

Children, ladies

Call the shrink up, they about to go crazy

Hold your drinks up, like you was celebrating

Hold your guns, if they is hella hating

I'm so clean, and them they got rabies

I can see them through the lens of my ray b ans wayfarers... hm

Yeah do you play fair? Mmm

Grab your remote, for the reason they made TIVO

Snap your Nikon's with the icons with Nike's on

I heard you like to do it with the lights on

But I really make babies when the mics on

Check out all my kids, that bought all my cribs

Got me out of that apartment

You have got to pardon him

I am so retarded with a spit like a retarded kid that spits

Oops, I ain't mean to say that shit

I told my homie Chris, these chicks is dangerous

You need a girl that's A List

Not one that's just barely made it on A List

Cause from Wall To Wall

We got it Poppin' right now

It's a hundred girls, tryna get DOWN DOWN DOWN

[Chris Brown]

Baby girl, gotta tell you

Seen you somewhere before, you look familiar

You had a red shirt, Gucci Slacks, and a Gucci bag to match it

Tell me you remember that baby girl, but lady never mind that

Can I take you out later? And here's my contact

Can you do me this favor? Let me spend this paper?

on you 'cause it's just sitting and let's just get it and go

Let me [x2]

Guarantee [x2]
I'll make your day, OK!!!
[Chorus]
[Bridge - Chris Brown]
The way I see it girl, you a perfect ten
That's why I'm all on you baby
You got me wondering
What to do, what to say
