How could I break the heart, that loved me
How could I hurt the one, that never would've hurt me
And with one mistake, one night, I've thrown away my life
And I wish I could take it back, Yes I wish I could change
the past
How could I break a heart, so trusting And lose my everything, for something that meant nothing
With one mistake, one night, so much was sacrificed And I wish I could take it back, Yes, I wish I could change the past How could I be so bad to the one that was so good to me
So cruel to the one that was so comforting
Now the tears are here

I want to feel, I want,
How could I break a heart, so easy

And lose the love of the one who loved me so completely
One mistake I made, look at the price I paid
And I wish I can take it back, How could I be so bad to the one that was so good to
me
So cruel to the one that was so kind to me
Now the tears are here,
Of what a fool I was

I wish I could undo the hurt I caused you But it's too late for that I know I can't
How could I break the heart, that loved me
How could I hurt the one, that never would've hurt me
And with one mistake, one night, I've thrown away my
And I wish I could take it back, Yes I wish I could change
the past
How could I break the heart, that loved me
