i taught i needed you but i don't really do don't you have somewhere to go tonight don't you have somewhere to go tonight hey you big liar i got something for yuh i taught that i new yuh but your a loser and i wanted to be yours but you treated me like your whore and oh your cutie but when you talk to me i don't know what to say its the same story everyday but what can i say ill not be with you someday and i don't mean to you what you mean to me and my heart was locked and i taught your love was the key cause when i had you think bout money i didn't think bout cars you were my all and if you didn't know i was into you and oy now someone else would do cause when i loved you and you loved me you said you had popularity and now i know that meant the only one i bet your all alone in your room tonight i taught the love of my life was you and look at what you do so (fuck you 5+)
