mm mmm mmmm woohh woh wohh.

Listen, I kno the past tense its been a minuite since we weare a couple and walkin and holdin hands. Kisses and i love you, doing what lovers do baby.

But baby that was then because now we dont talk nomore you got a new man and it shouldnt bother me but girl its drivin' me crazy. And everybody says look why dont you just leave it alone but i dont think i can, sit up all night thinkin bout you and i know it aint right baby i dont, i dont think that i, dont think i can let go. Dont think i can let you go. sit up all night thinkin bout yah and i kno it aint right but baby but baby i dont think, dont think i can let go.

Im holdin' on to hope i kno its full of stone thinkin' that someday she may come back. We shown it all the time knowing it may never happen but see im not a fool. Cos no we dont talk nomore you got a new man but im gonna keep the faith, ive got the patience that some last. But everybody says look why dont you just leave it alone, but i dont think i can sit up all night thinkin bout yah and i kno it aint right baby but i dont, i dont think that i, dont think i can let go said i dont think that i can let you go.

[Let Go Lyrics On]

Sit up all night thinkin bout yah and i kno it aint right baby but i dont, i dont think that i, think i can let go.

Oh no no nooo

i, i dont think that i can let you go ohh i, i dont think that i can let go.

And everybody says... hey, i dont think that i can, sit up all night thinkin bout yah and i kno it aint right baby but i dont, dont think tht i, dont think i can let go. Dont think i can let you go.

Sit up all night thinkin bout yah, and i kno it aint right baby but i dont, i dont think that i can let go. And i dont think that i can let you go x4
