I brought hers, I did the walk up in this mother f*cker like the kid back you see the ice, you see the leg truth is a..to cover up the pay see loving me for good reason and disrespecting home you can call a treason I'm in the bleeding walls with my hard liquor don't walk with it tonight I think I'll be cheatin

Chorus:

I told my way to keep the miles coming waiting all around me
I've been single for too..never this coming already replaced you with a new girl, new girl see ..the things you do girl still lonely, I'm still lonely I'm study tryin to replace you with a new girl in the end the only one I need is you girl

I'm standing thinking bout you, girl I'm thinking bout you, thinking bout you, girl I'm thinking bout you, all this new girl, they're you girl thinking bout you I'll be there I'm thinking bout you but honey should this tears f*cking .. all the fact is she up and look good .. look at them bottles them red bottles ..

I'm gonna speak tryin make peace but damn cry look at this damn crown, look at this damn crown
