Our love suicide [4x]

It's a long day
Last days, going nowhere
I was looking for love
Someone i could trust
Thought you'd be there
Life gets lonely
But what do you care...
Your my only
But you were'nt there

Strength of lies
Ocean wide
I'm running out of wall, and I
I wish that I could look inside your mind
I've been waiting for the day
When you will realize
What we have come along just once in a lifetime

Tell me the reason why
You commit a love suicide
I think you want our love to die
You did it on purpose
I'm all out of tears
Tell me get outta here
You made it very clear

You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless
Why would you hurt us, hurt us
You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless
Why would you hurt us, hurt us

You've became a stranger, a murderer
And i was your target
My heart's in danger for hurting
And you're the number one suspect
if there was a secret

That I need to know
Now we'll make all the love and your heart begin to flow

It was stupid of me to think

I was enough
Why should I hold up
And you're giving up

Tell me the reason why
You commit a love suicide
I think you want our love to die
You did it on purpose
I'm all out of tears
You made it very clear

You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless
You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless

Does it make you happy
To see me down
Does it make you dead to see me drown
Guess I'm your entertaining
You dont know what you're wasting
But soon you'll see

Our love suicide [4x]

Tell me the reason why
I think you want our love to die
You did it on purpose
I'm all out of tears
Tell me get outta here
You made it very clear

You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless
Why would you hurt us, hurt us
You did it on purpose, purpose
You did it on purpose, purpose
You made me feel worthless, worthless
