[Verse 1:]

It's like I'm at a candy buffet

Gum drops, blow pops, strawberries, and grapes

I know

You got the flavor

Baby and you all in the mix like a cup of Kool Aid

Wit a chocolate kiss

You put the sugar on my lips

I catch a fit, I'm not used to this

Can anybody tell me why

Shawty got me feelin' high

[Chorus:]

You're my now and later, girl (now and later)

Since you're so good to me

Like a cherry flavor life saver (my life saver)

Please don't ever leave

Now and later girl (now and later)

My candy girl

I get stingy when it comes to you

Baby I want you all for myself

[Verse 2:]

They don't understand

I consider as my first real love

Official authentic first sho'nuff

From the rough into love

Baby you changed me

I feel good about you

Before the sugar rush I'd never doubt ya

I need you dealin' wit me, not without me

So baby keep it close to me

[Chorus]

Call me your now and later, girl (now and later)

It feel good to me

My life saver

Please don't ever leave

Now and later (now and later)

My candy girl (candy girl)

I get stingy when it comes to you

Baby I want you all to myself

[Bridge:]

You don't have to worry

Baby we got forever

To keep it crunk

Baby it's a good thing

You're right here

And I am always cool, with that

Candy coated love

[Breakdown:]

Put your hands up if you in the spot

Let me see your now and later drop

Put your hands down playin' around

Now i know u wanna now and later drop

Put your hands up if you in the spot

Let me see your now and later drop

Put your hands down if you wanna play around

Know you wanna now and later drop

[Chorus]

Now and later, girl (now and later)

Feels so good to me

Cherry flavor life saver (my life saver)

Please don't ever leave

Now and later (now and later)

My candy girl

I get stingy when it comes to you

Baby I want you all for myself

I need ya girl, I need ya girl

Baby I want you all for myself (i want you)

Baby I want you all for myself (all to myself, hey)

Baby I want you all for myself (oh)

Baby I want you all for myself (uh huh huh)
