im writing this letter you better read it, cause in this letter ill make you see that aint no one better... for you than me...no....

im singing this song hope your listening would i do wrong theres somehing missing why cant you settle cant let things be...

(chorus)
im trying nto understand you always answer you aint ready but weve been talkin , lay it on steady i wanna know if & when your ready if im gone be your man cause i aint gotta follow the waiting but i aint trynna wait in vein would you want me 2 be your man just call me and say yes (10x)

look in the mirror you didnt know that i stay up all night thinking about you girl im getting ready thinking bout what im gonna do when you become my girl & i become your man for the sweat & steady dreaming

(chorus)
im trying nto understand
but i aint trynna wait in vein
would you want me 2 be your man
