In a crowd, in the dark I would walk straight to your heart Without any hesitation Every turn, every town Every highway I go down Baby, you're my destination And even if nowhere was where every road led me to Chorus: I'd find you, I'd find you In the day or the night, in the black or the white In the red of a rose or the depths of the ocean blue I'd find you Even if you and I Never met, still I know I'd find You among the millions It's beyond my control Like a magnet pullin my soul Across the great division And even if i lost my way in this world i walk through CHORUS All my life I need you next to me Cause in your eyes I see my destiny And I'd find you, yeah I'd find you In the face of a child, in the warmth of a smile On the first day of spring when the flowers grow wild Every song ever sung about bein' in love Every kiss, every hug, every touch Anytime, anyplace, in the whole human race In the sweet memories and the ones yet to be In the wrong and the right and the beauty that lies in the truth I'd find you Yeah, I'd find you
