"Stay"

People crowd the streets and
Townies march their feet
It'd be nice to stay home
Cause
Sirens fly with speed and
The train's loaded with tension
Your voice breaks on the phone

The sky is hurt and crying
The pine charms the fire and
I think you should stay

The crew upstairs are gone and
You've had a long assignment
It'd be nice to stay home
Let's
Order up some food and
Watch a flick -- you're choosing
Even chill down rocky road

I feel it's been forever since
We've been close together
And locked us in our getaway

The sky is hurt and crying
The pine charms the fire and
I think you should stay

You should
Stay

(Solo)

I want to hear of Everything you're made of
It feels so nice to see your face

I could sit and stare while
You play with your hair
Your smile takes my breath
Away

The sky is hurt and crying
The pine charms the fire and
I think you should
Stay

I think you should
Stay
