No, I couldn't tell you how the house burned down
Last night while we were running around Midnight surrounds you, the moonlight makes you proud
Last night, oh, we were running around

Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all

All along I was your home
All along I was your home

Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all
Sing for last call, sing for last fall, such was it all

And all along I was your home
All along I was your home
All along I was your home
All along I was your home
