Left the vagabonds
A trail of stones
Foward to find my way home

Now as the air grows cold
The trees unfolds
And I am lost and not found

And who knows
Who knows, who knows, who knows
And who knows
Who knows, who knows, who knows

Now left the vagabonds
A trail of stones
Foward to find my way home

Now as the air grows cold
The truth unfolds
And I am lost and not found

Now left the vagabonds
A trail of stones
Foward to find my way home

Now as the air grows cold
The truth unfolds
And I am lost and not found
