There's a place where you can light the fire and watch
it burn

Lay it down and lose it all

It's taken me so far beyond the point of no return

Gave all that I had

When hope is gone

(Hope is gone)

Is this real?

Or is it just another crazy dream?

Someday soon will fade away

Feels just like I'm under water and can barely breathe

Dying in the bed that I have made

I don't wanna drown in you

I'm sinking, then I'm starting to

So when you see me, come up the river

Don't try to hold me down, just save me now

Don't let me drown in you

(Don't let me drown in you)

Said it, pulls me in closer than I've ever been

There ain't no way I can escape

Without a doubt you know that I would tread the deepest end

Thousand years forever in a day

But I don't wanna drown in you

I'm sinking, then I'm starting to

So when you see me, come up the river

Don't try to hold me down, just save me now

(Just save me now)

Don't let me drown in you

Did I bring this to myself?

Can I get out alive?

Yeah, I've given you the best of me

Now you want the rest of me

What's it gonna take to survive?

Yeah!

(Solo)

There's a place where you can light the fire and watch
it burn

I don't wanna drown in you
(Drown in you)
I'm sinking, then I'm starting to (I'm starting to)
So when you see me, come up the river
Don't try to hold me down, just save me now
(Just save me now)
Don't let me drown in you
Don't let me drown in you
(Drown in you)
(Just save me now)
(Don't let me drown in you)
(Drown in you)
