For how long has this been goin' on
Let me know before things go wrong
Please tell me, truth I must hear
For I fear a heartbreak is near

You do this, you do that
Everybody can see
While you're gone from my sight
You're dismantling me, don't listen to rumors
'Cause truth comes from you
It's becoming so clear
Please don't let it be true

Hit the streets, ear to the wind
Head is sick and I need my close friend
Forty dollars and a phone number too
Now I'm half way there being so sweet to you

You do this, you do that
Everybody can see
While you're gone from my sight
You're dismantling me, don't listen to rumors
'Cause truth comes from you
It's becoming so clear
Please don't let it be true

Pain is gone and the deal has gone down
Head is straight yeah, and my life's turned around
Won't be long and time catches on
And then your life, your life will be gone

Tailspin headwhack
Don't turn your back
Tailspin headwhack
Don't turn, don't turn your back
