Don't you want somebody to love

Someone who could be your true love

Going, always gone

Don't you want these arms around you

Remember when it was I found you

Going, always gone

All your world it seems so lonely

You're always out there on your own

Oh, darlin'

Don't you want somebody to love

Someone who could be your true love

Going, always gone

All this world seems so lonely

You're always out there on your own

Oh, darlin'

Don't you want somebody to love

Someone who could be your true love

Going, always gone

Don't you want these arms around you

Remember when it was I found you

Going, always gone

Going, always gone

Going, always gone
