I know I let you down the last time.
You said then there'd be no next time.
One more chance is all I'm asking.
Is it so hard to be forgiven?

If only I could make you see how much your love could mean to me.
This time..
This time..

Cause I know the world can turn against you.
But this time I'm gonna be there for you.

I know I said I'd change the last time.
But it won't be the same this time.
If only I could make you see,
how much your love is changing me.
If only we could start again.
This time.
This time.

If only I could make you see.
What one more chance could mean to me.
If only we could start again.
This time.

This time..
This time.
This time.

I know it's gotta work out this time.
