Love me or hate me baby
Truth me of fool me darling
Hurt me or please me honey
Your always in my head
Take me or lose me sugar
Make me or break me honey
Hurt me or please me honey
Your always in my head

You took the words right out of my mouth
You stole the thoughts right from my head
You left me with no more to say away
You think your just one step ahead
But IÂ'm the one you see instead
Your just a chapter that is there so walk away

Leave me and trick me baby
Your lovin your kisses darlin
Love me and tease me honey
Your always in my head
hadnÂ't you lost me baby
Your cryin to miss me honey
Can try to convince me darlin
Your always in my head
You took the words right out of my mouth
You stole the thoughts right from my head
You left me with no more to say away
You think your just one step ahead
But IÂ'm the one you see instead
Your just a chapter that is there so walk away
You took the words right out of my mouth
You stole the thoughts right from my head
You left me with no more to say away
You think your just one step ahead
But IÂ'm the one you see instead
Your just a chapter that is there so walk away

I donÂ't know what you said
But you did it well
I donÂ't know what you said
But you cast the spell

I don't know what you said
But you did it well
I don't know what you said
But you cast the spell

You took the words right out of my mouth
You stole the thoughts right from my head
You left me with no more to say away
You think your just one step ahead
But I'm the one you see instead
Your just a chapter that is there so walk away
You took the words right out of my mouth
You stole the thoughts right from my head
You left me with no more to say away
You think your just one step ahead
But I'm the one you see instead
Your just a chapter that is there so walk away
