Deep in sleep, i finally found you. dreaming sweet, without knowing who's watching you.
now as im standing here right in front of you i smell your sweet little tears..

Its a night like no other nights dont you know you my burning light we had a deal.
another night like no other nights we had, we had a deal can feel my sense of plesure, can you taste the burning flesh? iknow you dont i knooooow you dooont twenty years of no good searchin, just to find my choosen one, no where to go nowhere to hide... cant run..

no one in the world can save you now, count you deamons im here...
