I see the way you look at me
You envy me (you envy me) and it's killing you, (eating you alive)
And you know it makes me smile when I look in the mirror
Thinkin' how good it is to be king

And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
Don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
Don't think you'll ever be,
Everything a man should be Cause Don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreamin', youll never be me

Too soon, you'll be a memory there for all to see (forever) just illusion (just illusion)
And sometimes it makes me laugh when I see your reaction
Knowing that I've become mighty

CHORUS

Inside my mind there is a freak
That drives me on past all defeat
You'll never have, you can't instill
The power of my iron will

CHORUS

the king of all you see
it aint that easy
everything a man should be
keep dreaming, youll never be me
