Here I am on the other side of the radio Wondering why I'm here and why anybody cares what I say No, I'm not a better man 'cause I'm singing my songs on the radio
'Cause we're all the same at the end of the day

Now I imagine you on the other side of the radio Doing your homework or driving with your windows down on the freeway I see you tapping the wheel, I see you bobbing your head to the radio
Oh, and it makes my day to see that smile on your face
And in some small way, I remember my place

'Cause it's you and me singing the same song right
now
And maybe this'll bring us together somehow
And maybe there's a million people all singing along
Somebody started thinking about the third line
And maybe someone's saying a prayer for the first time
And that's enough reason to keep me singing my songs
Singing my songs on the other side of the radio

Crank up the volume and sing at the top your lungs with the radio Tuning in to some good news, and laughing along with the D. J.
We're changing somebody's world from the other side of the radio
Oh, and it makes my day to see that smile on your face
And in some small way, I remember my place

'Cause it's you and me singing the same song right
And maybe that'll bring us together somehow
And maybe there's a million people all singing along
And maybe someone's saying a prayer for the first

And that's enough reason to keep me singing my
songs
Singing my songs on the other side of the radio

'Cause it's you and me singing the same song right
And maybe that'll bring us together somehow
And maybe there's a million people all singing along
And maybe someone's saying a prayer for the first
And that's enough reason to keep me singing my
songs
Keep me singing my songs on the other side of the radio

On the other side of the radio, on the other side of the radio
On the other side of the radio
