cause i broke another heart...
(Hey this is Chris, sorry cause i cant answer my phone right now... if you've been calling me for the past three days and i havent called you back yet, probably on purpose)

I told you "No" when you wanted something more than friends, i gotta go cause i think i'm messing with your head,
it was just one night,
now you're cooking me breakfast, and taking me out to lunch, you made those reservations at a place on sunset, so i gotta clear something up,
oh no how do i say this?
I hope it dont make you cry

cause i broke another heart,
i saw it coming,
i told you at the start,
i gave you a warning,
you didnt listen when i said we're just friends,
now you're dragging my name around town,
is this what i get just because you werent that smart,
i broke another heart

i led you on,
shouldnt never kissed you with my tongue, it was the blues (come on) that made you think that you could be the one,

it was just one night,
now you're going all psycho, and standing outside my door, you keep texting my phone, but you're not getting an answer, and when you call, i hit ignore,
oh no how do i say this?
I hope it dont make it cry

cause i broke another heart,
i saw it coming,
i told you at the start,
i gave you a warning,
you didnt listen when i said we're just friends,
now you're dragging my name around town,

how about you get a clue?
I'm just not into you,
i gotta say that i'm not sorry, i'm so not sorry
i saw it coming,
i gave you a warning,
you didnt listen when i said we're just friends,
now you're dragging my name around town,

(i'm not sorry, i'm so not sorry)
i gave you a warning,
you didnt listen when i said we're just friends,
now you're dragging my name around town,
is this what i get just because you werent that smart?
I broke another heart.....
