If you can't see through the darkness,
Use my light, I'll be fine,
This is all familiar,
Because I've been there!
One foot in front of the other,
Everything will be O.K. please believe me,
Stay strong and you will see!

Chorus:

These tears will disappear
Like all the ones who've done you wrong!
Give it a moment and take a breath,
This too shall all be gone!
We are making, we're stronger,
For all the pain they put us through!
The words won't hurt us no longer,
Our dreams will be what gets us through.
And when it feels like your whole world is ending,
Remember me and know that I'm the one saying,
It gets better, believe me!
It gets better, you'll see!

Someday you'll find love
And look back at when you were young
And only see the good days,
When there's no one in your way.
Butterflies, you'll fall in love,
Get up on and knee with a ring
And then you too will be married,
And maybe then start a family.

Chorus:

These tears will disappear
Like all the ones who've done you wrong!
Give it a moment and take a breath,
This too shall all be gone!
We are making, we're stronger,
For all the pain they put us through!
The words won't hurt us no longer,
Our dreams will be what gets us through.
And when it feels like your whole world is ending,

Remember me and know that I'm the one saying,
It gets better, believe me!
It gets better, you'll see!

Look up to the sky!
When no one falls,
There's gotta be something up there!
You saw the beauty around,
Like a simple flower,
I promise you this, love exists!
It will get better, believe me!
You will see!

Chorus:

These tears will disappear
Like all the ones who've done you wrong!
Give it a moment and take a breath,
This too shall all be gone!
We are making, we're stronger,
For all the pain they put us through!
The words won't hurt us no longer,
Our dreams will be what gets us through.
And when it feels like your whole world is ending,
Remember me and know that I'm the one saying,
It gets better, believe me!
It gets better, you'll see!
