I have decided to let go I cannot change the things I know
I have decided to give in like that I cannot loose nor win
I learnt my lesson well to speak but never tell
About the things i know they know so well Consigned it to the grave hid it from the day
It has a new deep sense to me just like a new technology
It has a new deep sense everywhere I see
And in the deepest of the night
I saw a glimpse of paradise glimpse of paradise
I learnt my lesson well to speak but never tell
About the things I know you know so well Corals, jades and pearls are the treasures of this world Treasures of this world
It has a new deep sense to me: my new delicious vacancy
It has a new immense sensuality
And in the deepest of the nights I looked into his angeleyes
It has a new deep sense to me just like a new technology
It has a new deep sense everywhere I see
And when I looked into his eyes
I saw a glimpse of paradise glimpse of paradise
Oh, my heart
