"Disappear Club 5"

First thing i woke up and put my bare feet on the floor
Shuffled away to the bathroom and opened the door Then checked my voice mail, got dressed and drove in to the day

Remembering i was running away from a place that i knew

Remembering i was trying to remember why

Honey it's not enough, i've checked it out

It's disappear club 5, or what?

I peeped into your file of facts, i saw it in your book

Workday as usual, meetings and conference calls

An assistant of mine gave me looks i have not seen before

I then took the elevator down and out on the streets

Cars kept on passing me

Merging and blastering off into the night

Noticed a sign saying disappear here once again

Honey it's not enough, i've checked it out

It's disappear club 5, or what?

I peeped into your file of facts, i saw it in your book

Honey it's not enough, i've checked it out

The password's "gemini", or what?

I peeped, it's true, and that's a fact

It's as bad as it looks

Remembering how it was to escape from a place that i knew

Remembering i was trying to remember why

Honey it's not enough, i've checked it out

It's disappear club 5, or what?

I peeped into your file of facts, i saw it in your book

Honey it's not enough, i've checked it out

It's fifteen minutes down the block

You could have told me, really shuld

It's as bad as it looks

As bad as bad as it looks

As bad as it looks

Remember why...
