Grandpa got trapped in the walls of mist
He tried to flee and measure out the view from his braincloud
But the higher he climbed, the more they dragged him down
He loved to sing
He didn't dare to talk
He loved to sing but he didn't dare to talk
A woman got injected with the poison from a man
Struggled for a lifetime to wake up and understand
Steady on, sleepwalker
Steady on, sleepwalker
There's so much more than this I swear
There's so much more than this
Would you care?
Know that someone like this could have been spared
Life's worth more than this, I swear
The longer you let it wait it'll catch you up, you up
Whenever you walk away, it'll catch you up, you up
If you do ignore their fates, it'll catch you up, you up
The consequences of foul play is that it'll catch you up, see?
Boy, it's got to stop, to stop!
Boy, it's got to stop, to stop! S.T.O.P
Steady on, sleepwalker
Steady on, sleepwalker
Sleepwalker
There's so much more than this I swear
Life's worth more than this
Would you care?
No, that someone like this should have been there Know there's more love to life than this
The longer you hesitate, it'll catch you up, you up
Whenever you look away, it'll catch you up, you up
Don't watch their lives drift away
It'll catch you up, you up
No, the consequences of foul play is that it'll catch you up, see?
Steady on Steady on
S.T.O.P
