My endless efforts
They will never be enough
To impress You and earn Your love
There's only one way
It wasn't possible for me
Till You spent Your blood on me

So take me to the cross again
Remind me where I should have been
And where I belong now where I belong now
Take me to the cross again
Remind me where I should have been
And where I belong now
Where I belong now

My deepest longing
Is to join You where You are
To behold You and never part
There's just one way
It wasn't possible for me
Till You spent Your blood on me

Cause I've been crucified
But I'm alive because You died
I've been crucified
But I'm alive because You live
I've been crucified
But I'm alive

I'm alive
I'm alive
I'm alive
I'm alive

Where I belong with You
I belong with You
