Chris: You're makin' up excuses
Asking me to leave
Is it over you and me?
Been waiting here for hours
You don't return my calls
I wonder if you care that I'm on my way to fall

Both: Don't know how to make it alright this time
Or how I'm gonna make it through the night
Without you by my side

If only I could say I'm sorry
If only you would understand
If only you and I could compromise this time
If only you, If only I would try

Anna: I focus on my breathing trying to stay alive
Only half way through the night
Looking at your pillow remember for awhile
how it used to be
When I woke up to your smile

Both: Don't know how to make it alright this time
Or how I'm gonna make it through the night
Without you by my side

If only I could say I'm sorry
If only you would understand
If only you and I could compromise this time
If only you, If only I would try
If only you, If only I could turn back time

Anna: Over and over and over again
Chris: I'm hopin', wishin' 'cause no one's to blame
Anna: Silently hear myself whisper your name
Both: Over and over again
If only you would understand
If only you and I could compromise this time

If only you, If only I would try
If only I could say
Chris: I'm sorry, yeah-yeah
Both: If only you would understand
If only you and I could compromise this time
If only you, If only I would try
If only you, If only I could turn back time
