Ain't nothin goin on in town tonight
Except the loud party crowd drinkin too much beer
So baby tell me would it be alright
If we just take a little rain check and stay right here
I'm sure we could find somethin to do
As a matter of fact, baby why don't you

Chorus:

Grab a couple glasses and a bottle of wine
Walk down the hall and turn down the lights
And baby while you're at it
You might as well let down your hair
And I can take it from there
I can take it from there

I'm gonna put an old record on
Conway Twitty yeah girl I'd love to lay you down
Kill that anger on your telephone
Ain't gonna stop lovin you til the candle burns out
Oh there it is that little smile of yours
Come on baby whatcha waitin for

Chorus:

Grab a couple glasses and a bottle of wine
Walk down the hall and turn down the lights
And baby while you're at it
You might as well let down your hair
And I can take it from there
I can take it from there

Yeah tomorrow's gonna be here way too soon
Let's not waste another minute
Girl I've got plans for me and you

Chorus:

So grab a couple glasses and that bottle of wine
Walk down the hall and darlin turn down those lights
And baby while you're at it
You might as well let down your hair
And I can take it from there
I can take it from there
