History has conditioned. Pounded through like pistons.
The truth is so obscure. When you're only seeking to be secure- secure like the womb or a four-walled room-can only be a tomb. Full of stifeling gloom. Secured in the gloom of a four- walled tomb return to the womb of your stifeling room- your future lies in education education through degredation degredation through segregation- segregation from everyone and everything. Lifesucker, fearfucker, death woreship, lifes whoreship, have you got a place in the human race? (who said life was fair?)
