He believed in his govt, trusted what they had to say, he thought he would be helped, instead they took his life away. He didn't see the plan, as corporations bought the land, to control the food, to control everyone. Chorus part. Fought the nazi's in World War 2 now they have come home for you. As you salute the flag they take all we have.chorus. The bank called his loan the final step to take all he owned, all he's left is his hands to work for the boss man, ,,you're just a relic, a relic of the past, in our new America you're not gonna last."
