In the abundance of water the fool is thirsty.

Why do you look for the living among the dead? Why do

You look for the living among the dead? Ignoring what So many prophets & so many righteous man said. What They said. Yet you still look for the living among the Dead.

So tell me what them do.

Mistaking the messenger for his message, mistaking the Prophet for whom he represents, mistaking the king for The King of all Kings, mistaking the singer for the One he sings.

Why do you look for the living among the dead? Why do

You look for the living among the dead?

Mistaking what so many prophets & so many righteous Man said. What they said. Yet you still look for the Living among the dead.

A fool is going to thirst in a world full of seas. What does it take to make a blind man see? A burning Bush to explode in his face, before he finally sees The Father's grace.

Why do you look for the living among the dead? Why do

You look for the living among the dead? Your Praising What so many prophets & so many righteous man said. What they said. Yet you still look for the living Among the dead. Tell me what them do?
