LISTENING

I KINGS 19:11-12

So it seems sometimes that I grow weary (Isa. 40:29) and that the world around will overtake me. And all the things I pray just seem to float away as I stand alone I dream of you. Listening- For your voice to tell me where I should go. Listening- For your Word to teach me the wisdom I should know. Listening- For your light to shine the way through the darkest night (II Cor. 4:6).

Listening- For comfort and love to feel all right (Ps. 119:50-52,76) Chorus: So now I'm listening for Your voice to softly call my name. I'm listening for Your voice to help me on my way. Yes I am listening for Your voice I long to hear You say "My child I've come and here I'll stay." It is the still small voice the man listens for, sometimes He shouts more time He whispers. 2X. For there are times in life I feel quite empty, and there are times when nothing will prevent me from striving day to day trying to find a way to a love I can only find in You, ya you. Listening- In moments, when I find it hard to hear you. Listening- Through the distractions of the World (I Jn. 2:16,17) Listening- I'm on my knees and begging you Lord please?

Listening- I find the solution in your Word. Chorus. Listen, It is the still small voice the man listens for sometimes He shouts more time He whispers. 2X. I want you to listen the tear from my eye well shines and glistens. God's Word is sweet as honey and it heals as medicine (Ps. 119:103, 107:20) It soothes my soul what the pastor says to do (Heb. 13:17) [He also speaks] Through your brothers and sisters and the mind of Christ in you. (I Cor. 2:16) So I want you to listen and to listen cleanly. With God's all seeing eyes you will see clearly that your day to day life it is just prophecy; to be fulfilled by God Almighty. Chorus. (Deut. 30:20).
