You made your bed
now you can lie, lie in it you're no victim
it would be too easy despite what you think it wasn't so easy for me i'll remind you if i may you left me

then i turned my head and the feeling was gone but i lived you baby, i loved you baby you say it wasn't fair but i'm left on my own i'm going crazy, i'm going crazy

out of thorns, i'd swear bitter is your game ungratefulness is looming
you say it wasn't fair but i'm left on my own
i'm going crazy, i'm going crazy
i wish i could tear my guts, tear my heart 'cause i feel so lonely, feel so lonely baby but i won't complain to you or no one unlike you baby, i'll hide my tears

i won't say you don't love me
no more
