Hey little sister, you look so fine and you sing like an angel like a goddess of some kind you little rock chick so with your talent and my genius i'm sure we could mend the world get them to at least adore us 'cause i deserve to be worshipped but if you don't jump into my bed then you're shit, you're shit if you don't follow my ego trip

hey little sister, you move so fine and you shine and you glitter like a diva of some kind and i want you in my club 'cause with your talent and my genius i'm sure we could make them sway get them to understand better that i'm only doing this for them

i'd like to get my hands on you
