Tell me what am I to do
It's tearing up my heart
When I think of you
Even though it's crazy
To think I've fallen in love
It's true, oh yeah.

Everything I'll ever need
Is with you, still I don't know
Where it could lead
I wish I could find just one reason
Why I should try to
Steal another man's dream

Does he treat you like an angel?
Does he tell you the things you need to hear?

Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would?
Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would?

If it's really meant to be
The future can be ours
If you set him free
Then it would be worth all
The troubles tomorrow will bring
Coz forever will be you and me

Does he treat you like an angel?
Does he tell you the things you need to hear?

Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there

Like I promise I would?
Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would?

Oh, I'm not making promises
I know I can't predict a thing the future may hold
This I know I've never felt
A love this strong right through my soul...

Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would?
Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would?

Does he tell you he loves you?
Does he tell you he needs you?
Does he tell you he cares?
That he'll always be there
Like I promise I would....
