I will play guilty if thats what you want
I dont mind going down for love
I'll play the game for me it's the same
It dont matter to me anyway
Cause i would lay my life down for you
When every thing is on the line
You can carry on if all the blame is mine

So find me guilty
In reaching to high
I'm still aiming for the sky
For no greater love
Could man ever find
Than for another
Be willing to die

I learned the hard way not to give in
It dont matter if I dont win But i will defend you with all that im
I'll take the blows if I can
Cause i would lay my life down for you
When eveyr thing is on the line
You can carry on if all the blame is mine

I'm just a man
Fighting for love
Looking for truth
Living in hope
I'm just a man
Fighting for love
Looking for hope
Living in hope
