I'm captured by the love and I have become Your own
Surrounded by my God I'm rising above the shadows

You want me to know
I'm not alone
You want me to come to Your throne
I know

It's in Your atmosphere
Your spirit is here
I can't explain this moment
In Your atmosphere

Your love becomes real
My heart begins to sink into Your hands

You're raining over me flooding my soul with peace
In sin You show mercy my gracious King

I'll come and hear You say
You're precious to me

It's in Your atmosphere
