There's a sound in the air
Can you hear it everywhere?
Voices trying to be heard
Love is more than just another word

And oh, you can turn it up loud
As loud as it will go
But it will never make its way to your soul
No, no

Until you feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart, your heart
You gotta feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart

Oh oh oh

All the world is listening
For a sound that's different
Clear the static
Cut the noise
Heaven help us to find our voice

And oh, you can turn it up loud
As loud as it will go
But it will never make its way to your soul
No, no

Until you feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart, your heart
You gotta feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart

You can say, say all the right things
But in the end what does it all mean?
Yeah, you can say, say all the right things
But in the end what does it mean?

Oh oh oh (Repeat)

You gotta feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart, your heart
You gotta feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart
Feel it in your heart

Oh oh oh

All the world is listening
