I ask myself what can I offer You
Can you use someone who already feels used
Have all my mistakes let you down
Can you turn my failures around

Here we are now in this moment
Here we are
You are my hope when I'm broken
I am at the end of myself
Here we are
this is the start of a new life
Like a child breathing this air for the first time
I am made new, I am made new

Create in me a heart as pure as gold
The beauty of your love within my soul, Ohhh You've never felt so near
And the view has never been so clear

Here we are now in this moment
Here we are
You are my hope when I'm broken
I am at the end of myself

Here we are
this is the start of a new life
Like a child breathing this air for the first time
I am made new in you, in you, in you
I am made new in you, in you, in you

Here we are now in this moment
Here we are
You are my hope when I'm broken
I am at the end of myself
this is the start of a new life
Like a child breathing this air for the first time
I am made new

Here we are now in this moment
You are my hope when I'm broken
I am at the end of myself
Here we are

This is the start of a new life
I'm breathing this air for the first time
I am made new
I am made new
I am made new
